What is your process for reviewing and deciding whether to accept or reject children who have been referred for an ADHD assessment.	Barnsley	The Trust uses SNAPS questionnaires as a pre-requisite. We also consider what parenting support has been offered at Early

		Help level as part of a graduated response.
	Calderdale	Referrals for a neurodevelopmental assessment are managed by the First Point of Contact Service which is delivered separately from the SWYPFT Neurodevelopmental Assessment Service.
	Kirklees	Referrers telephone the neurodevelopmental assessment service to make a referral. A member of the team takes the information and asks questions to gather the information needed. The referral is then accepted or signposted with advice depending on whether the criteria for acceptance has been met.
	Wakefield	N/A, the Trust does not provide children's ADHD assessments
Is your organisation confident that it is satisfying the NICE guidelines for children with ADHD?	Barnsley	Yes
	Calderdale	The Trust's assessment and treatment pathways are developed in line with NICE guidelines and up to date research. Some of the treatment offers for ADHD are commissioned from services outside of SWYPFT e.g. groups for parents.
	Kirklees	The Trust is confident we are meeting the NICE guidance for assessment of children with ADHD.
